

Lockdown Quiz IV

18 April 2020

Who designed the uniform for the Hitler youth?

- a) Christian Dior b) Hubert Givenchy c) Karl Lagerfeld d) Hugo Boss

The 'Boss of the Plains', made in 1865, was an early iteration of what famous garment?

The bikini is named for bikini atoll where the US tested nuclear weapons. But what does bikini mean in the local Marshalese language?

- Place of... a) Coconuts b) Fish c) Shelter d) Coral

Who designed the uniforms for Team GB in London 2012?

Tiberius forbade Roman men from wearing what?

- a) High heels b) Green c) Silk d) Hats

What two places are referenced by the name 'denim jeans'?

Which of these did Elvis not say you could do, rather than stepping on his blue suede shoes?

- a) Burn my house b) Take my girl c) Steal my car d) Drink my liquor

Mackintoshes are named after Charles Mackintosh. But from which language is Cagoule taken?

What technology did Parisian tailor Jolly Bellin invent in 1825?

The Fez was the preferred hat of the Ottoman empire until the 'Fez Boycott' of 1908. Which other empire, the supplier of most fez, was the target of the boycott?