

Lockdown Quiz X

30 May 2020

(Quiz Note: there is some dispute over which countries are Nordic or Scandinavian. For the purposes of this quiz, the two words are synonymous and mean Denmark, Norway, Sweden, Finland and Iceland. Territories, such as Faroes and Greenland, are considered part of Denmark, This is probably is deeply offensive to someone. But... it's a quiz)

One of the longest road bridges in Europe connects Malmo to which capital city?

Which two Nordic countries are republics?

What does smorgasbord literally mean?

Who is Ingvar Kamprad, from Elmtaryd farm, Agunnaryd in Sweden?

Finnish is notable for being one of very few non-Indo-European languages in the EU. Name any other two.

Which Nordic country's highest point above sea level is less than 200m?

Which Nordic restaurant knocked El Bulli and the Fat Duck off the top spot of the Best Restaurants of the World list? It has come top 5 times since 2010.

Which Nordic capital city took its current name in 1924, having previously been called Kristiania

Hygge was Collins English Dictionary runner up for word of the year 2016. What was the winner?

Hans Christian Anderson struck up a friendship with a Victorian novelist, first visiting in 1847. The friendship was ended by Anderson's second visit, which grew from a weekend stay to a 5 week residency in the novelist's house. Who was the novelist?